

Content

Rupert Graf Strachwitz

Foreword — 1

Rupert Graf Strachwitz

Introduction — 3

Pandora Dimanopoulou

From church diplomacy to civil society activism: the case of Bishop Irineos Galanakis in the framework of Greek–German relations during the Cold War — 15

Margarita Markovit

In the shadow of the ‘prevailing’ religion: religious communities and civil society in Greece — 41

Efstathios Kessareas

The Orthodox Church of Greece and civic activism in the context of the financial crisis — 61

Rocco D’Ambrosio

“The Catholic Community and Civil Society in Italy” — 119

Paul Dekker

Religion and civic engagement: European patterns and digging deeper in the Netherlands — 137

Johan von Essen and Julia Grosse

Religiosity and civic engagement in late-modern Swedish society — 161

Linnea Lundgren

A Diversity of Roles The Actions Taken by Religious Communities in Sweden during the “Refugee Crisis” in 2015 — 189

Ahmed Kulanić

The Islamic community in the secular state: its organisation, role, position, and functioning – a case study of Bosnia and Herzegovina — 221

Fabio Battaglia

Report on Faith-Based Organisations and Civic Engagement in Europe — 247

Tymen J. van der Ploeg

Relations Between the State and Religious Organisations in Europe From a Legal Perspective — 311

Bibliography — 375

Contributors — 399